

Dropout Prevention Intervention Guide

The Meadows Center for Preventing Educational Risk

The Greater Texas Foundation

The Dropout Prevention Institute

2010

TABLE OF CONTENTS

SECTION ONE: STUDENTS AT-RISK FOR DROPPING OUT

- I. Introduction
 - a. Rationale
 - b. Purpose
- II. Identifying students at high risk of dropping out
 - a. Risk factors
 - b. Screening
 - c. Engagement

SECTION TWO: MONITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES

- III. Dropout Monitor's roles and duties
 - a. Tasks
 - b. Schedules
 - c. Grouping
 - d. Site expectations
 - e. Data

SECTION THREE: THE CORE OF THE INTERVENTION

- IV. Checking
 - a. Academic
 - b. Behavior
- V. Connecting
 - a. Daily meet and greet at beginning of school day, between classes, and/or during breakfast or lunch
 - b. Discuss importance of attendance/behavior and consequences of continued behavior
 - c. Give praise for successes, big and small
 - d. Use positive reinforcement and incentives
- VI. Group Sessions
 - a. Lesson plans
 - b. Goal setting and monitoring
 - c. Motivation
 - d. Extracurricular activities
- VII. Home Contact
 - a. Initial parent letter
 - b. Informational meeting for all parents
 - c. Exchange of preferred method of communication

- d. Contact made with parent of each student at minimum of once a month for positive reinforcement and more frequently for students with continued risk behavior
- e. Notify parents each month that lists all excused absences, unexcused absences, class skips, tardies, suspensions, and current number of credits.
- f. Notify parents of any school services or after school programs available to their student

VIII. Field Trips

- a. How to choose venues
- b. College and Career Readiness (CCR) Standards
- c. Considerations
- d. Behavior expectations
- e. Examples
- f. Reminders

SECTION FOUR: ADDITIONAL INDIVIDUALIZED INTERVENTIONS

IX. Academic

- a. Determining who and how much additional, intensive interventions are needed
- b. Consultation for additional services in and possibly out-of-school
- c. Monitoring throughout the day
- d. CCR activities
- e. Academic support

X. Behavioral

- a. Establish a contract
- b. Frequent checking and connecting
- c. Daily contact with teachers and support team members
- d. Individual meetings
- e. Encourage positive peer influences
- f. Facilitate mentor relationship

XI. Communication

- a. Provide frequent feedback to students
- b. Incorporate student feedback and performance in group
- c. Review contract progress
- d. Contact parents/guardians on a regular basis

XII. Student Scenarios

- a. Monitor's responses to individual student scenarios or types of behavior
- b. Quotes
- c. Monitor Resource Guide (will be added to the MCPER website in the Spring of 2010)

SECTION FIVE: ISSUES TO CONSIDER

- XIII. Frequently Asked Questions
- a. Should my school site have a Dropout Monitor?
 - b. What should I do when a student tells me he/she is going to dropout?
 - c. What should I do when a student refuses to attend group?
 - d. What should I do when a student does not want to be involved in the intervention any longer?
 - e. What should I do when a student does not feel the groups are meaningful?
 - f. What might be my biggest challenges?
 - g. How can I be a dropout monitor and fulfill the other responsibilities necessary to support student engagement to experience success in high school (e.g. also acting as a “Counselor”, “Social Worker”, and an “Advocate” to support students)?
 - h. What type of relationships can I form as a monitor serving students at one site or multiple sites?
 - i. What are age-appropriate incentive ideas?
 - j. How can I receive donations to assist in college and career exploration field trips?
 - k. What field trip locations are appropriate?

SECTION SIX: RESOURCES

- XIV. Resources
- a. References
 - b. Web resources
- XV. Appendix
- a. Materials used in the lessons
 - b. Examples of model lessons, worksheets, complete observation form, etc.